Terms and conditions

- Payments will be direct debited from your account fortnightly on the day of your choice.
- Credit cards will attract a 2.4% fee on any purchase over $35.00. Direct debit with bank details no fee.
- Contracts are flexible. To cancel your contract, you must give a min of 14 days written notice, if your contract is less than 3 months old you must give 28 days' written notice, via email. If your payment is rejected, you will incur a $14.80 dishonour fee by Ezydebit.
- *No Contract options require a min of 4 weeks membership, to cancel 5 days written notice, via email, to ensure we have enough time to stop the payments through Ezydebit.
- If you are injured or away for an extended period, we can pause your contract. An end date must be put in place.
- Contracts can be put on hold, with an end date in place, for a maximum of 7 times per year, unless there has been a special arrangement made with management. This must be requested in writing, either via message or email.
- Prices consider that Arte Suave will be closed for approx. 10 days over Christmas. You cannot put your contract on hold at this time.
- Memberships subject to availability.
- You MUST book for each class you wish to attend. Yoga is a secondary service and requires a min of 24 hours' notice and classes are subject to availability. If you choose a 2-service option, you are guaranteed a min of 1 class of Yoga per week.
- Once you have joined, you use the Mindbody program to book all your classes.
- There are extra membership options that can be customized to your needs, please contact us for this.
- Private lessons for all services available. Please call to enquire. Rates are per hour for up to 4 people, each coach, especially blackbelts will have individual rates according to their level.
- Weights area, and the Bulletproof for BJJ program are available free with all adults 6-month memberships.
