Terms and conditions

- Memberships are subject to availability. Numbers are kept to a level where students can train comfortably without overcrowding.
- Payments will be direct debited from your account, fortnightly, on the day of your choice.
- Contracts are flexible. To cancel your contract, you must give a min of 14 days written notice, if your contract is less than 3 months old you must give 28 days' written notice, via email.
- *No Contract options require a min of 4 weeks membership, to cancel 5 days written notice, via email, to ensure we have enough time to stop the payments through Mindbody.
- You can pause your contract for up to seven (7) times per year, for holidays, injuries and any other reasonable cause. This must be requested in writing via email with a beginning and end date for the pause. We cannot pause without exact dates.
- Prices consider that Arte Suave will be closed for approx. 10 days over Christmas. You cannot put your contract on hold at this time.
- You MUST book for each class you wish to attend. Yoga is a secondary service and requires a min of 24 hours' notice and classes are subject to availability. If you choose a 2-service option, you are guaranteed a min of 1 class of Yoga per week.
- Once you have joined, you use the Mindbody program to book all your classes. You will receive this information in a membership email.
- There are extra membership options that can be customized to your needs, eg FIFO please contact us for this.
- Private lessons for all services available. Please call to enquire. Rates are per hour for up to 4 people, each coach, especially blackbelts will have individual rates according to their level.
- Weights area, the bouldering room and the Bulletproof for BJJ program are available free with all adults 6-month memberships.
